SHIPPING AND INSURANCE

Artwork must be hand delivered to the Rahr-West Art Museum (610 N. 8th Street, Manitowoc, WI 54220). Artists must pick up their artwork or make arrangements to have someone pick it up for them. Artists must provide their own packaging. Although every effort will be made to handle your artwork carefully, Lakeshore Artists Guild and the Rahr-West Art Museum are not responsible for any damage incurred during shipping.

Artists are responsible for shipping any sold artwork to the buyer if buyer is unable to pick it up at the museum.

Unless the exhibitor expressly elects to maintain his/her own insurance, the Rahr-West Art Museum will insure this loan under the terms of its fine arts policy. The loan will be insured for the amount given on the face of their loan agreement, to be signed by exhibitor at submission, against all risks of physical loss or damage from any external cause while on location during the period of the exhibition. The policy contains the usual exclusions of "all risk" policies. If the exhibitor chooses to maintain his own insurance, this shall constitute a release of Rahr-West Art Museum from any liability in connection with the property on loan.

The Rahr-West art Museum will give to all works of art loaned to it the same care as they would receive if they were the Museum's own property.

SALES

The purchase price for works sold, (minus a 30% commission, taken by the Rahr-West Art Museum) will be forwarded to the artist the first billing period after the close of the exhibition. Please price works to include the 30% commission. All works submitted as "Not for Sale" (NFS) must have a value attached for insurance purposes.

Please note: City Policy states that the Rahr-West Art Museum must have a completed W-9 form on file before a check can be issued. A W-9 form is included with this packet, or can be downloaded at <https://lakeshoreartistsguild.weebly.com/upcoming-events.html>

If your items are for sale we ask that you fill this out in advance and submit it with your paperwork.
